

1

The following sentence has five meanings, depending on what the prepositional phrases (PPs) are modifying. Each of these meanings is associated with a particular structure. Tell me what each of these meanings are, and draw the syntactic representation (that is the phrase structure tree) associated with each meaning.

- (1) It flew over the seagull beside the raven without wings.