

Because of the campus closure today, it won't be possible for those of you who were planning on handing in assignment 2 late to do so. It is also not possible for me to go over the answers to assignment 2, and this, it turns out, you need to know in order to do assignment 3. For these reasons, we'll have a new schedule for these two assignments. That new schedule is:

- If you've not already done so, you can hand in assignment 2 in discussion section on Monday (February 25th). I'll post the answer key for assignment 2 at the end of the day on Monday.
- Assignment 3 is now due on Friday, February 29th. I would wait until after Wednesday's lecture to attempt doing the second question on assignment 3.
